GUITAR INTRO: E, A, E, A

E A
The heavens shine a little brighter tonight
C#m B A
as you have joined by His side.

E A
But I am struggling to justify
C#m B A
how you could lay down your life.

E A
I would rather you work all day
C#m B A
and give your labor to the Lord.
E A
That's the measure I'm comfortable with
C#m B A
but you were called to do more.

E B A
How am I supposed to live – knowing that you died
E
to serve one and all?
E B
What could I ever give?
C#m B A
My offerings now seem so small.

E B
But I will offer this simple prayer;
C#m B A
that I might follow your faith.
E A
That I might rise on wings with eagles.
C#m B A
That my life will flow with His peace
E A
And I will thank you, thank you
C#m B E A, E, A
May God grant us all such courage and grace.

C#m B A
Every battle I've fought - every lesson I've been taught;
A B C#m
they just don't measure up to where you have been.

B A
There is no greater gift than the one you have given.

A B
You laid it down for your friends.

E B
And I will offer this simple prayer;
C#m B A
that I might follow your faith.
E A
That I might rise on wings with eagles.

C#m B A
That my life will flow with His peace

E A
And I will thank you, thank you
C#m B A
May God grant us all such courage and grace.

E A
And I will thank you, thank you
C#m B E A, E, A
May God grant us all such courage and grace.

E A
The heavens shine a little brighter tonight
C#m B A E
as you have joined by His side.
