

THE PEACE CAROL

Written by Bob Beers ©1971 Dimensional Music of 1091 admin. by Cherry Lane Music Publishing (ASCAP)
Arrangement by Darrell Smith – www.darrellsmithmusic.com, Jeff Moore & Ross King – www.rosskingmusic.com

INTRO: G, Em, Am⁷, Am⁷, D, D, G

G Am⁷
The garment of life be it tattered and torn.
D G
The cloak of the soldier is weathered and worn.
Em Am⁷
But what child is this that was poverty born?
D G
The peace of Christmas day

G Am⁷
The branch that bears the bright holly,
D G G, G, D/F#
The dove that rests in yonder tree,
Em Am⁷
The light that shines for all to see,
D G
The peace of Christmas day.

G Am⁷
The hope that has slumbered for two-thousand years.
D G
A promise that silenced a thousand fears.
Em Am⁷
A faith that can hollow an ocean of tears.
D G
The peace of Christmas day.

G Am⁷
The branch that bears the bright holly,
D G G, G, D/F#
The dove that rests in yonder tree,
Em Am⁷
The light that shines for all to see,
D G
The peace of Christmas day.

G Am⁷
Add all the grief that people may bear.
D G
Total the strife and the trouble and care.
Em Am⁷
Put them in columns and leave them right there.
D G
The peace of Christmas day.

G Am⁷
The branch that bears the bright holly,
red, green, the Holly tree
D G G, G, D/F#
The dove that rests in yonder tree
peace love eternity
Em Am⁷
The light that shines for all to see,
star light brightly beams
D G
The peace of Christmas day.

G Am⁷
The branch that bears the bright holly,
D G G, G, D/F#
The dove that rests in yonder tree,
Em Am⁷
The light that shines for all to see,
D G
The peace of Christmas day.